

A Sherlockian Toast (posted 2023-6-18)

Toast to Dr. Anstruther
by Ira Brad Matetsky
before a meeting of The Priory Scholars of New York

When Watson works with Sherlock Holmes, he has to get another Physician in to cover him, and so he calls Anstruther.
I wish that I could say some more to praise that man and tout him,
But I'm afraid we aren't told another thing about him.
Still, to his list of merits, we can add one to his tally:
Without his aid, we couldn't have gone with Holmes to Boscombe Valley.
